Direct-to-Consumer Laboratory Testing allows you to take control of your health in between physician visits. Your physician may feel it necessary to repeat any testing in conjunction with a physical examination and evaluation of medical history.

If you are in need of a primary care physician or specialist, contact Ohio State's Wexner Medical Center for a physician referral at 614-293-5123 or 800-293-5123.

LEGAL NOTICE

The Informational Nature of the Tests:

University Reference Laboratories (URL) at The Ohio State University Wexner Medical Center provides Direct-to-Consumer Laboratory Testing, including the accompanying interpretive guidelines, for informational purposes only.

Direct-to-Consumer Laboratory Testing cannot take the place of medical advice, diagnosis or treatment. It is therefore important for you to discuss your Direct-to-Consumer Laboratory Test results with your physician who can determine treatment based on your medical history, physical examination and test results.

Physician judgment must remain central to the selection of diagnostic tests and therapy options for your medical condition. Always seek the advice of your doctor if you have any questions and before you stop, start or change any treatment plan, including the use of medication.

No guarantees are made with respect to accuracy, completeness, errors or omissions of content. In no event will Ohio State's University Reference Laboratories be liable for any decision made or action taken in reliance upon the information provided through this testing program.

Privacy:

Ohio State's University Reference Laboratories respects your privacy. Personal information collected from customers will not, unless required by law, be shared with any third party. The primary reason personal information is collected is for identification purposes and to enable you to obtain your test results. Ohio State's University Reference Laboratories will not distribute unsolicited emails, nor, unless required by law, share the names of our customers with any third party.

Third Party Payment or Reimbursement:

To the best of our knowledge and belief, Direct-to-Consumer Laboratory Testing is not reimbursed by any health insurance company or by Medicare, Medicaid or any other city, state or federal program. You may not submit a request for payment or reimbursement of the charges from Direct-to-Consumer Laboratory Testing to any health insurance company or to Medicare, Medicaid or any other city, state or federal program.
