GET READY TO PRESENT AT THE 32ND ANNUAL 2023 ADDICTION STUDIES INSTITUTE CONFERENCE!

The Ohio State University Addiction Studies Institute (ASI) is seeking proposals for presentations at the 2023 Addiction Studies Conference to be held virtually, July 20-21, 2023.

For the last 31 years, ASI conferences have provided clinicians, substance-use disorder advocates and professionals with the most current best practices and insights that help attendees expand their skills, gain current knowledge to provide quality care, and learn new and developing in-the-field practices and methodologies.

By presenting at the 2023 ASI Conference, you'll have the opportunity to build your professional network and share your experience and ideas with others. Attendees are diverse and include:

- A wide array of attendees such as counselors, social workers, nurses, prevention specialists, corrections, psychologists, students, clergy, school personnel, child welfare workers, and courts
- A strong range of knowledge and experience with substance-use disorders
- A real desire to gain continuing education credits to remain up-to-date in their profession and knowledge.

About Your Presentation

We are looking for presentations on a broad range of addiction-related topics of interest as well as varying lengths of time.

Presentations should focus on practical information rather than a focus on or about theory. The conference is designed to provide attendees with information and resources they can use in their professional capacity.

We are interested in presentations on the following topics:

- 12 Steps
- Addiction in Diverse Populations
- ADHD
- Anger Styles
- Brain Physiology and Addiction
- Cannabis (treatment, in conjunction with other substances, research, etc.)
- Cognitive Behavioral Therapy
- Co-Occurring Disorders
- Counseling Techniques
- Criminal Justice System and Addiction
- Cultural Competence in Interpretation of Addiction Studies
- Cultural Diversity
- Depression and Alcoholism
- Diagnosing/DSM-V for New Counselors
- Different Medication Treatments
- Drug Identification. Symptoms During Use and Withdraw
- Domestic Violence
- Eating Disorders
- Education on Neuroscience, Addiction, and Interventions
- Effects of Substance Use on Pregnant Woman
- Family Dynamics of Addiction/Recovery
- Fentanyl In Our Communities
- Greif Recovery Method and Treatment
- History of Substance Abuse Treatment
- Human Trafficking and Addiction
- Identifying Problematic Behaviors in Corrections
- Information on Current Drug Trends
- LGBTQ+ and Addictions
- Methamphetamine / Fentanyl
- Mindfulness
- Motivational Interviewing
- Neurobiology of Addiction and Trauma (Intervention Focused)
- Peer Recovery Support
- Prison and Clients on Probation

- PTSD and Topics Related to the Veteran Population
- Recovery Oriented Systems of Care Model Programs
- Relapse & Recovery Supports
- Self-Care
- Setting Boundaries
- Spirituality
- Street Smart Presentations

- SUD / MOUD / MAT – New Treatment Ideas
- Sugar Addiction (Patients become abstinent from drugs get diabetes)
- Trauma -Informed Care
- Telehealth Services
- Therapeutic Evidence Based Treatment
- Trending Addiction Topics
- Vaping
- Youth and Substance Use

This not a definitive list. We invite presentations on any issue that pertains to the population or the field.  In addition, we strongly encourage presentations that would meet the guidelines and quality for ethics and supervisory credit. Information regarding these guidelines can be found on our website at https://wexnermedical.osu.edu/lp/addiction-studies-institute or at https://custom.cvent.com/55DB354EE23C442F8A0C4F4DDFCCCD34/files/717be336613740b189a044b0a2a22681.pdf

The deadline to submit proposals is February 28, 2023.

ASI Conference 2023 Submission Policies

Attendance and Conference Registration:
All presenters are required to register and attend the 2023 ASI Annual Conference. If selected to present, the cost associated with registration is waived. Selected presenters are not provided with honorarium.

Target Audience:
Your proposal should identify the target audience you are planning to reach. Examples include, but is not limited to:

- Recovery
- Treatment
- Mental health issues and addiction
- Ethics, CBT, Techniques, ISP
- Prevention

- Special patient populations
- Trauma Informed Care and Addiction
- Diverse Audiences (Veterans, LGBTQ+, Black, Latina, Physically Challenged, Immigrant)
- Other – Please list in presentation

Publication Materials:
If your proposal is accepted, your presentation title and abstract may be edited by the 2023 ASI Annual Conference committee and/or staff for publication purposes. The 2023 ASI Annual Conference committee and/or staff support will provide a "use of materials" release form for selected presenters to complete in order for 2023 ASI Conference committee and staff to use materials to support promotion of the conference.

Presenter Limits:
An individual may be listed in any number of proposals; however, it is our policy that an individual, regardless of role, may present in no more than two different conference sessions. The number of presenters listed in a proposal should reflect the needs of the format selected. For 60+-minute session presentations, a maximum of three individuals (including the chair) are permitted.

Noncommercial Policy:
2023 ASI Annual Conference sessions are learning experiences and are noncommercial. Under no circumstances should a conference session be used for commercial purposes of a presenter's product, service, or other self-interest. In addition, if selected as a presenter, 2023 ASI Annual Conference committee will provide a release form to be signed by the presenter for the use conference materials in ASI 2023 Conference official social media, on the website for conference promotion.

Commitment to Diverse Perspectives:

The 2023 ASI Annual Conference committee expects that session proposals demonstrate understanding of the varied conference attendee experiences, backgrounds, and learning needs.

Assigning a Back-Up Presenter:

All speakers selected to present at the 2023 ASI Annual conference will be encouraged to designate an individual that is willing and able to step-in in the case of an emergency to give their presentation.

Conference Session Selection Rubric:

The 2023 ASI Annual Conference committee expects that session proposals demonstrate understanding of the varied conference attendee experiences, backgrounds, and learning needs. Our committee will use the rubric below in evaluating your proposal. Therefore, be sure to complete / address each item in your proposal .

| | 1 | 2 | 3 | 4 | 5 |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| 1) How well do the title, abstract, and objectives align with each other? | There is no alignment, or it is not clear. | There is an alignment, but the proposer did not successfully convey the alignment. | The alignment is clear, but the language needs refinement. | They align, and the proposal uses language that effectively conveys the session content and goals. | Not only do they align but the proposal uses language that clearly and accurately conveys the complex relationships between title, abstract, and objectives |
| 2) How likely is it that participants will be able to achieve the stated learning objectives, including audience engagement appropriate to the objectives, using a virtual platform? | They are inappropriate or not clear. | They may be appropriate, but the proposal does not effectively convey how the format and delivery method will help participants meet learning objectives. | They are appropriate and have the potential to achieve some of the objectives | They are appropriate and will achieve all the objectives | Not only are they appropriate but the format and delivery selected are uniquely suited to achieve and exceed the objectives |
| 3) Do the presenters hold the appropriate qualifications and experience to deliver the presentation | There is no evidence supporting the presenter(s) are knowledgeable in the topic or hold the appropriate qualifications | There is some indication that the presenter(s) are knowledgeable in the topic area and hold the appropriate qualifications | The presenter(s) are sufficiently knowledgeable and hold appropriate qualifications | The presenter(s) are very knowledgeable in the topic area and hold or exceed the qualification needed | The presenter(s) have the ideal background and experience to present this topic and exceed the qualifications needed |
| 4) Which statement best describes your assessment of this presentation… | This presentation is not the right fits for our conference. | This presentation topic is interesting, but I would need additional information to determine its fit in our agenda. | This presentation topic is one that we have had before but is always well attended. | This presentation topic is very interesting and would appeal to many attendees | This presentation topic is new and innovate and must be included in our agenda. |
| 5) Given the limited number of slots available for sessions and the high volume of proposals received, how likely would you be to attend or recommend someone attend this session if placed on the program? (Consider full proposal) | I would not attend or recommend it. | I would not attend or recommend it. | I may attend or recommend it | I would attend or recommend it | I would definitely attend or recommend it |