EVENT OVERVIEW

Date: March 23 – 25, 2018
Location: Columbus, Ohio
Venue: James Cancer Hospital @ The Ohio State University Wexner Medical Center
Hackers: 100 (2-5 person teams)
Mentors: 50

On March 24th and 25th, join us for the first Brain Health Hack for a weekend of building and creating real projects to help address various brain health and performance research and clinical needs. Over 100 undergraduate and graduate students will design, build and demonstrate projects to a live audience of students, faculty and representatives from both the health care and tech industry.

PARTNERSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

All partners will be provided with recognition on the Brain Health Hack website and t-shirts. They will also have the option to include an item in the swag bag.

Project Sponsorship ($2,000)
As a project sponsor your company will host its own Hack-A-Thon challenge for students to develop solutions. Company can provide judges and judging rubric for challenge.

Prizes / Awards ($1,200)
In addition to the challenge prizes for each winning team, we are offering a variety of other prizes for Hack-a-Thon participants. For this partnership, you can either select a prize category from our list or create your own and donate the physical prize. Prize categories include: Best Design Hack, Most Original hack, Most Ambitious Hack, Best Hack Fail, The Best Mobile Hack

Food & Beverage ($200 - $800)
• Breakfast - 2 Slots
• Lunch - 2 Slots
• Dinner - 3 Slots
• Breaks - 5 Slots

Other Partnership Opportunities
• T-Shirts ($1,000) – 1 Slot
• Swag Bags Items
• Other food and beverage donations

2018 BRAIN HEALTH HACK
Presented by the Stanley D. and Joan H. Ross Center for Brain Health and Performance, the Chronic Brain Injury Discovery Theme, and Ohio State University Wexner Medical Center Neurological Research Institute.