Educational Mission:

This two-day program is specifically designed for Urology Chief residents and fellows interested in learning the state-of-the-art in robotic surgery for kidney, bladder, adrenal and reconstructive urologic procedures. Live surgical procedures and honest discussion of the strengths and limitations of robotic techniques will be offered. Our ultimate goal is to allow attendees to gather the information necessary to consider the role of robotics in their future careers.

Course Participation:

This program is offered free of charge, including registration, meals, and hotel. To register you must provide a credit card. A charge of $250 will only be assessed for "no shows" or cancelations within two weeks of the course.

An informal reception with the faculty will follow the didactic portion of the program on Friday. Those residents participating in the hands-on portion of the course on Saturday morning will be finished by 11:30 am. Registration is limited, especially for the hands-on dry lab and simulator program with preference given to Chief Residents. We will have a waiting list in the event that registration fills, so please plan to register early.

Individual residents or his/her program will be required to cover cost of airfare or automobile travel to Columbus, Ohio and make those arrangements independently. Hotel accommodations will be covered by Ohio State at double occupancy.

Attendees will be assigned a roommate for their stay at the discretion of the meeting planner.
